Huntsville Futbol Club to host U17 Women's Ghana National Team

August 17, 2010, Huntsville, AL – Huntsville Futbol Club will host U17 Women's Ghana National Team on exhibition match at John Hunt Stadium on August 18th at 5.30PM.

The Ghanaian National Team, the Black Maidens of Ghana, led by Coach Allotey, is training in Alabama at the Jack Allen Complex in Decatur. The hot and humid environment is a perfect training stage in preparation for the upcoming U17 World Cup to be played in September at Trinidad and Tobago.

HFC U17 Girls coach, Marty Clark, says "This is a wonderful opportunity and life experience for our girls! We look forward to hosting the Black Maidens and providing the best competition possible."

Public is invited to attend the free exhibition match.

About Huntsville FC

Huntsville Futbol Club (HFC) is the second largest soccer club in Alabama and the largest in northern Alabama. Our primary goal is to provide soccer development and competitive opportunities for all ages and all ability levels. To accomplish this goal we have implemented a "Total Soccer Development" system of training. HFC currently offers playing opportunities from recreational to regional leagues. The Coaching staff is unparalleled in Alabama and one of the most experienced in the southern United States. Among our staff, we have several coaches with National Coaching Licenses; many former college players; former college All-Americans; former National team players; former professional players, coaches with additional Brazilian, Dutch and German Coaching Licenses; current and former high school and college coaches.
